

A SIMPLE STRATEGY AND ROADMAP FOR PARTNERING WITH PARENTS

Nick Blevins | nickblevins.com | @nickblevins

ministryboost.org

Realities to Consider

- Parents have the most influence
- Partnering with them is critical
- Every parent is not at the same stage
- This will always feel like extra (pushed out by the urgent)
- You can't do everything, so be intentional

The Goal

Help parents take one step in leading their children spiritually

Communication

- The Goal: Keep parents informed so they are involved and continue conversations at home
- Channels

1

Email	Inform	Text	Remind
Facebook	Resource	Instagram	Celebrate
Mail	Promote	Website	New
Program/Bulletin	Inform

- Content
- What their kids learned
- What is coming up
- Tips
- Create a rhythm and stick to it
- Change it up every 2-3 years

1

- Don't compete with other communication from your church

Resources

- The Goal: Make it easy for parents to win at home with their kids
- Connect parents to existing resources
- Parent resources provided by your curriculum 2
- Other parent resources 3
 - Parent Cue Homeward Focus on the Family
 - Homepointe Homefront Parent Portals/Websites

Events

- The Goal: Help parents celebrate as a family and replicate it on their own
- Transition Events 2
 - Into Kindergarten Into Middle School
- Milestones 2
 - Baby Dedication Salvation/Baptism
- Family Events 4

Small Group Leaders

- The Goal: Give kids someone who believes in them and give parents a partner for the long haul
- Small Group Leaders are your best partnership with parents
- Work hard to put consistent leaders in the life of every kid 1
- One staff person can't partner with every parent, but small group leaders can

Community

- The Goal: Give parents a place to belong and a community that encourages and challenges them
- Parenting Classes 4
- Small groups for parents 4
- Coffee Talks 3
- Facebook Groups 3
- Small Group Parent Gatherings 4
- Marriage Enrichment 5